MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
AT NASHVILLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

NO. 3:11-CR-098

Plaintiff

Chief Judge Haynes

vs.

COREY LANIER

Defendant

MOTION IN LIMINE

Based upon the statements of counsel for the parties, this motion is DENIED as moot.

Comes the Attorney for the Defendant, Corey Lanier, and would move the Court as follows:

That the Government be prohibited from introducing evidence of the Defendant's past crimes, unless the Defendant introduces said testimony or opens the door to have such testimony come into evidence. Defendant would aver to the Court that under the Federal Rules of Evidence 404, any such evidence would be more prejudicial than probative and therefore should be excluded.
